IOWA DELEGATES NAMED TO UNITED STATES SENATE YOUTH PROGRAM

Senators Charles Grassley and Tom Harkin announced the appointments of Jared Greiner and Joshua Lipman as the Iowa delegates to the 45th Anniversary United States Senate Youth Program in Washington, D.C. The state's high school delegates were designated by Judy Jeffrey, Director of the Iowa Department of Education.

Jared Greiner, a resident of Council Bluffs, is Student Council Representative at Treynor High School. Joshua Lipman, a resident of Iowa City, is Student Senate President at West High School. Chosen as Alternates to the 2007 program were Molly Arns, a resident of Waverly, who attends Waverly-Shell Rock High School, and Kathryn Skilton, a resident of Nashua, who attends Nashua-Plainfield High School.

The student delegates will be in Washington, D.C., from March 3-10, 2007, for a week of intensive study of the people and mechanics of the American governing system. The operations of the Senate will also be highlighted during the week. As in past years, arrangements are underway for the delegates to meet with leading cabinet members, a Supreme Court Justice and several key Congressional policy makers.

Each of the delegates will receive a $5,000 college scholarship. This scholarship, in addition to the program week in Washington, D.C., is made possible by a grant from the William Randolph Hearst Foundation. All transportation, meals, and accommodations are also provided. No government funds are utilized for the program.
